Experience

RADA Shakespeare In Action Summer School

London, UK/Zoom
Summer 2020

Actor, Mover, Vocalist

- Performed in the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art's first virtual production in A Midsummer Night's Dream.
- Accepted into a competitive seven week program in London, moved virtual to Zoom due to COVID-19 pandemic.
- Trained by leading experts in movement, voice, and Shakespearean monologues and sonnets in a cohort of 12 students.

Roleplay: A Student Created Play on Tulane Life

New Orleans, LA
Aug 2019-Present

Student Writer, Performer, Creator

- Collaborated to write and stage a play on sensitive issues on Tulane's campus including sexual assault, racism, substance addiction, and homophobia.
- Spearheaded lectures about topics in the show and creative process led by cast in university classes.
- Filmed documentary with New Orleans film crew recording our process and passion, being sent to festivals.

Shakespeare on the Road

New Orleans, LA
Spring 2019

Assistant Educational Director, Writer, Actor

- Refreshed and rewrote an informational "Shakespeare's greatest hits" show for economically disadvantaged middle and high schoolers to inspire interest and enjoyment in theatre and literature.
- Created the educational portion of the production in which students interact with actors to experience Shakespeare in a supportive environment.
- Traveled to schools and performed wherever available in a "meet you where you are" manner, interacting with students as actors and then as small group leaders in activities.

Strauss Youth Academy for the Arts

Assistant Director/Founding Member/Summer Intern

Monroe, LA

2011-2017

- Founded a non-profit youth theatre, where ~10,000 children a year can experience bringing theatre to one of the most underserved regions of the country.
- Volunteered as a summer theatre camp counselor, educating young performers on stage presence while encouraging them with enthusiasm, empathy, and kindness to go outside their comfort zones.
- Began blocking and directing Shakespearean scenes at age 11.
